

2013 AARS Fall Training Exercise

WHAT: SCUBA Techniques for Everyone: Scuba Techniques for use in Rivers, Lakes, and All Zero Visibility Waters.

WHERE: Wind Creek State Park, Alex City, AL
<http://www.alapark.com/windcreek/>

WHEN: Saturday, September 21, 2013 from 9:00 till Late Afternoon

WHO: All AARS Members wanting a good class and Exercise on a Diving exercise

By Whom: James Miller, PADI Dive Master, Etowah County Rescue Squad, Lake Martin Search and Rescue, AARS Officers

The Alabama Association of Rescue Squads in Cooperation with Lake Martin Search & Rescue and Etowah County Rescue Squad is bringing this very informative Diving and Training Class/Exercise to You. If you plan on attending, Please bring everything that is needed just like a mission. We will be having the class Rain or Shine!!!!!! Divers get wet no matter what??????? Divers please plan in advanced Extra tank/s and have Equipment checked and bring extra straps and O-Rings. Tenders and Others please bring Life Jackets as well as anything else you use This is a Mission!!!!!! If someone has a Tank mishap. I can run to dive shop in Auburn to have tank filled.

For Free Squad Member entrance into park you must present Green Membership card for each member!!!!!!!!!!

Please note that Wind Creek is a State Park and has a lot of Camp Sites Available. Note That I am planning on camping myself Friday Night and Saturday Night. Just go to Web Site and get number and make reservation.

Look forward to seeing everybody there and please feel free to call me, text me or email me if you need anything.

Phone or Text 334-338-0327

Email training@alars.org

Matthew Knight
AARS